Classes/Demo Description at Merchant Booths

Black Mountain (86) PENNSIC 2025 CLASSES

Empires without borders: a different conceptualization of culture vs geography. In this advanced level discussion, we will be attempting to lose ourselves from an agricultural, or static, preconception of ethnogroups, countries and states, and become more comfortable with one informed by nomadic hunting and herding cultures. This is most suited to persons interested in Mongol and other Turkic cultures, with some familiarity with their chosen group; but is open to anyone curious. Discussion seeds will include, but are not limited to, controversial or misappropriated archaeological digs in the western steppes, clothing, ornament, historical ranges, intertribal and intratribal identity disputes in period.

Intro to Mongol Culture and Clothing... This class is a general introduction to the Mongol empire and its material culture. We will first go over the relevant foundation stones, which we need to understand the economy, government, and culture. From this was born the ethos, pathos, and aesthetic of the Mongol, of which we will show examples. This class will argue how narratively enticing and practically enticing joining the Great Horde can be.

Shyrdak Open Workshop This class has 2 speeds:

1: The curious passer-by. Come through, get a little packet, make a tiny craft felt square and learn a beautiful and timeless art form from the Kazakh and Kyrgyz peoples!

2: Devoted fiber enthusiasts. A few of us in the Steppes Culture community are coordinating a pre-order of 70%-90% wool felt, red and black, and making full size door hangings.

Message @blackmountainclothiers on Facebook or Instagram to be added to the wholesale order by July 1st. The workshop will be open several times so that we can have a sewing circle and be motivated to make significant progress on our rugs.

Brandr Forge (75) Basic Blacksmithing 101 - Do you hear the ringing of the anvil? Do you see the fire of the forge in your dreams. Well we can help you. Come to the Brandr Forge booth 075 on Market Street, where we will teach you the very basics of blacksmithing, metallurgy and metal magic. You may even get to swing a hammer. Check the Pennsic University guide for class times. “

Cosmetica Obscura (45): Demos from 10AM-4PM daily. See the ‘Cosmetica Obscura’ track at Pennsic University!

July 27: Forbidden Fragrances: Ambergris.

July 28: Botanical Blushes.

July 29: Seven Pieces of Persian Beauty.

July 30: Medieval Laurel Soap.

July 31: Historical Lipsticks.

Aug 1: Celtic Warpaint.

Aug 2: Mesopotamian Eyeshadows.

Aug 3: Historical Foundation.

Aug 5: Minoan Perfume.

Griffin's Hoard (165) will be offering - Block print your own favor/pouch - great for carrying your cellphone. Also block print a canvas satchel - just what everyone needs to carry their Pennsic purchases in! Both demo/ classes will be open to everyone to stop by.
